Annual Show and Sale Boys & Girls Calf Club

The Annual Show and Sale of the Crossfield Boy's and Girl's Calf Club was held on Thursday in conjunction with the School Fair.

Fourteen members brought out calves in real tip top shape making a nice class for Judge J. W. Durho to place, putting them in the following order:

Clarence Riddell, Catherine Leask, Gordon O'Neil, Jimmie Harrison, Eileen Riddell, Donald Leask, Eugene Hayens, Malcolm Leask, Margaret Priest, Loy Robertson, Loris Walsh, Leon Robertson, Keith Cochrane and Allan Priest.

Burns and Company Calgary, paid 18 cents per pound for the first prizewinner, other buyers being Union Packing Co. and Parslow and Denoon, the latter firm buying for Catchen Bros., these buyers taking the fourteen head offered at an average price of twelve cents per pound.

This was one of the best calf club years we have had for some time and it is to be hoped that the foregoing results may be the means of interesting more boys and girls to enter next year.

The judgement competition has still to be held, at which time we shall endeavour to get all interested parties together and try to determine whether or not to feed our own calves as in the past or to buy, as some of the other clubs are doing.

(Ed. - School Fair Prizewinners will be published in full next week.)

Wedding.

FLEMING-AINSCOUGH

The home of Mr. and Mrs. I. Rex Brown was the scene of a quiet wedding on Tuesday evening when Phyllis Mary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Ainscough of Crossfield, became the bride of Mr. Douglas Haig Fleming, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Fleming also of Crossfield. Rev. Rex Brown officiated.

The attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Chester Christiansen.

Mr. and Mrs. Fleming will reside in Crossfield.

—Albertan, September 13.

Former Crossfield Resident Succumbs in Calgary Hospital

Clarence John Eagleson, 31, suite 18, Healy apartment, died in a local hospital Tuesday after a long illness. Born in Crossfield, he was employed by Canadian Bakeries the past 16 years.

Surviving are his widow, Florence; a son, Ronald; his father, James, all of Calgary; four sisters and five brothers. Requiem mass will be celebrated at St. Mary's Cathedral, 9:00 a.m. Thursday. Interment will be in St. Mary's cemetery, with Jacques funeral home in charge.

Local and General

This is so sudden, Bill, but we thought you went to enlist.

Arthur Irwin, of the Calgary Flying Club, accompanied by Miss Evelyn Flether, of Lethbridge, visited Mr. and Mrs. Ballam Thursday last; also taking many up to see the sky, in Mr. Irwin's "Gypsy Moth".

Mrs. Ballantine, of Calgary, spent the weekend at the home of Mrs. J. R. Gilchrist.

—Albertan, September 13.

The late Mr. Eagleson was a son of the former section foreman in Crossfield, and will be remembered by his friends here.

Medicos Pass Edmonton Man, He Drops Dead

Edmonton, September 9 — Vernon Earl, 36, of Edmonton, was accepted as a militia recruit Thursday, after passing the medical examination. Mrs. Earl found him dead Friday and doctors said he died of heart disease.

Announcement.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lennon announce the marriage of their eldest daughter, Margaret Mary, to Vernal Stanley Reid, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Reid, of Langley Prairie, B.C., the wedding to take place September 21.

Balloon Blown Here From United States

A toy balloon which had travelled almost 1,000 miles was picked up on Wednesday last by George Innis, who farms seven miles northeast of town.

The balloon was liberated by Joe Einevaller of Portland, Oregon, according to an attached tag, which read: "I was released at the 19th annual convention of the Lutheran Walther League at Corvallis, Ore., August 26, 27, 1939." The reverse side bore the liberator's address: Joe Einevaller, 6203 SE Milwaukee Ave., Portland, Oregon.

Mr. Innis found the balloon while working in a field.

UNITED CHURCH NOTES.

Services next Sunday at Madden.

Those who wish to help with the choir will meet Thursday night in the church for practise.

Statement of a strategy commission, world Council of Churches, Excerpts from the section - "The Church's Tasks in Time of War."

1. "Preaching and prayer made truly Christians, not nationalistic propaganda. War is not to be presented as a holy crusade; but rather common sin." (common to all)

2. "Brotherly relations between churches be maintained through leaders in neutral countries."

3. "Work for a just peace to counteract the spirit of vengeance and lust for power, checking mass hatred."

4. "Guard against being agencies of propaganda of hatred, lending authority and sanction of religion."

5. "Minister to prisoners of war, discouraging reprisals against them; aid refugees."

6. "Give spiritual help and comfort to victims of war."

7. "Show a willingness to share the blame for the sin of war."

Teacher: "Yes, children, an Indian wife is called a squaw. Now, what do you suppose the Indian babies are called."

Little Joe: "I know - Squakers"

Munson Wheat Club Boys' Achievement

Left: DON SHARPE AND HIS PLOT Right: DON AND DEAN SHARPE

This photograph illustrates what the Alberta Junior Wheat Clubs, sponsored by the Alberta Wheat Pool, are accomplishing throughout the grain area of the Province.

The picture shows the Sharpe twins, Don and Dean, twenty-year-old sons of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Sharpe, of Munson, with their wheat plots.

District Agriculturist, A. J. Charnetski, who inspected the plots recently, gave them 99 per cent marks — almost perfect farming.

The young farmers are members of the Drumheller Junior Wheat Club.

Remote Control

"Times Have Changed", said a friend to us recently. People are different and time seems to go faster. Weather conditions even make one think of what is about to happen. The state of affairs the world is in today has a tendency to make people more quiet, the excitement of the past has vanished, although some are seemingly happy.

What is going to happen? This question stands above all other conditions. One asks the question, "Can we expect the conclusion of the universe?"

Many of our young men, some not yet 21 years of age, some barely over, are enlisting to give their lives to protect the country in which we live, our homes and loved ones. Some of these who enlist have quite a cheerful countenance, others appear to be worrying over something; perhaps a dear friend or relative is on their minds. We see young men of our own towns and villages willing to put forth all efforts to once again bring peace to the universe. We also see that many of these young men were planning futures which would bring happiness, peace and joy, but — The conditions of the times must be met. Wars will and have come to the world.

Words are beyond expressing what it all means — These well-planned futures are "cut to pieces", Scriptural Prophecy proves everything. Were it not for One who has control over all, what drastic conditions would prevail today. Yet He continues to bear with the human race.

Could people of the world today but realize what life is for, who created it and "What is there in it?", would it not be a fine place in which to live? Is it possible that all nations could be peaceful? This is beyond thought, strife will come, and it is here today. All we can do is meet it, put our best talents and efforts toward "Peace" in the end, and we can rest assured.

Under the same heading "Remote Control" it would also be fitting to state that crop conditions are good, all vegetables are showing thrift — but why are there so few potatoes? Was there not sufficient moisture during the summer to have a bumper crop? Is the soil not as good as it was last year? Why, we planted the same kind of seed! Did the weeds get the best of the moisture? They were kept hoed down!

"Signs of the times" cause one to think.

Crop Conditions

Although rain has done considerable to stop harvesting in the district, the sun is beginning to shine, and, we hope it will not be long until crops find their proper places in bins and elevators. The total amount of moisture received is .87.

Combining is at the verge of completion while there are still a number of fields of stooks, waiting for the binders.

Proper Steps Taken

It is worth noting that steps are being taken by the Dominion government to curb war profiteering, both in foods, material supplies of all kinds and munitions. The Canadian record in profiteering in the early years of the Great War was disgraceful and it is well for the country that there shall be no repetition of such things.

There is also an unmistakable public demand that wealth must be conscripted first and foremost. Men who enlist as privates at the rate of $1.30 per day are not pleased when wealthy men and institutions continue to pile up money at the expense of the taxpayers and the enlisted men themselves.—Vegreville Observer

Silence is the Best Policy

As this column is written it is with the realization that Canada is again a major factor in a European war.

In Canada we have living among us thousands of families, men, women and children, who have found a good living and happy homes, and who came, some quite recently, from countries with which Canada is now at war. In times of war in any country the position of such people is always exceedingly difficult, but they themselves can make things much easier, if they would absolutely refrain from discussing any political matters that might tend to cause resentment against them.

Should these people heed suggestion there is little doubt that the rest of us will do our best to make the lot of these Canadians, of foreign extraction, as easy as possible, by saying nothing and committing no action that will tend to embarrass them or make their existence any harder than need be. When the war is over we will still live together once again, we hope, with each other as good friends, good neighbours—in short, as Canadians.—Olds Gazette.

The Sources of Wars

The causes of wars are attributed to many things. Some people say that the Money Power originates war, the international financier being the evil genius behind the scenes. Others believe munition makers cajole the nations into strife in order to provide markets for their wares.

Neither of these allegations are true. Wars are always destructive to established wealth. The munition makers are accessories after the fact rather than originators of war.

The true cause is the desire of nations to increase their power, wealth and the general prosperity of their people. Widening trade is the great wealth provider of any nation, and so all are after new and extensive markets. Without external markets prosperity is unavailable to any nation.

If a nation loses a portion of its foreign market, internal industry declines, people are unemployed and bread lines lengthen, taxation increases and general misery prevails. This makes the people discontented and they turn upon their government. So the main idea of governments is to extend foreign markets in order that their people will be busy and satisfied.

If this can be done without war, everything is all right. But if a war is necessary to extend trade that war will be fought if there is any chance of success.—Hanna Herald

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

As an act of courtesy "Letters to the Editor" are published, and the Chronicle cannot be held responsible for the opinions expressed.

Editor Chronicle

Sir: With regards the figures contained in the letter submitted by me to your paper and published in a recent issue. They were not quoted from a letter received by me from the Deputy Minister of Education, but were copied from a letter to the Deputy Minister from the Board of

We have reports from several of the secretaries of large school units that were first organized and as they all show savings of considerable amounts it is hard to see why taxes should be raised. However, this raise in taxes does not apply to the Olds Division alone, many complaints come from the Calgary Rural Div. No. 41.

Having called on the secretary of this Division, where I obtained some valuable information, also some figures, I am informed that the requisition for schools in the Calgary Div. 41 for 1938 was $120,000.00; the requisition for 1939 was $106,000.00 plus the Government grant of $14,000.00; total $120,000.00. So it is rather difficult to see the need of a tax raise in the Calgary Rural Division. Yet we hear that the taxes are raised.

With regard to the portion of the Rosebud M.D. in this division, according to figures obtained from the divisional secretary, the assessment was 257,587.00. The requisition was $1,894.41. Assessment: Inverlea, $122,946.00, McPherson, $53,615.00, Sunshine $81,026.00; total $257,587.00.

The mill rate required to raise $1,894.00 on the above assessment would be slightly below 7.5

I understand that in some cases the mill rate on ratepayers tax notice is as high as 10 mills.

I have no means of knowing why the mill rate is higher than what is required to raise the amount asked for by the divisional board. Besides talking with the divisional secretary I talked with a member of the divisional board who said that although he didn't think they could effect any great saving this year he certainly did not see why they could not operate with the same amount, besides the fact that they would be able to supply the schools with at least some of the necessary books and some other things. He also said that he was confident that, given a reasonable amount of co-operation, a much more equalized system of

Cremona Notes

Cutting is over half done here in general. Some report their crops as good as last year, others that frost is visible. Two threshing machines expect to start about September 12.

The Cremona high school has opened temporarily in the old building until the Large Unit can get the school house built in Cremona. There is a roll of 26 entered at present. Mr. Robt. L. Reid is teacher and several of the new students have been located in the town so as to make it closer for them to attend school.

Mr. McLeod moved into the Buster Brown House, and Mr. Patterson is cleaning and painting their house at present.

We notice that several of the boys have gone to Calgary to register for enlistment, and quite a few more are going down as soon as the busy season is over. The boys seem very interested.

The World of Wheat.

By H. G. L. Strange

WAR, with its ruthless destruction of cherished possessions, and of precious life, is scourging us again. Canada, with the other members of the British Commonwealth of Nations, is standing steadfastly by the side of Great Britain and her Allies France and Poland, against Hitlerism and Nazism.

The WAR will be bitter and cruel, and perhaps long. If the forces of righteousness, of truth, of liberty and of freedom, which we stand for, are to prevail, it will require an extraordinary number of the Empire's young manhood in the battle lines, and so will require too the unswerving and intense efforts of practically every man and woman serving on the home front, in one capacity or another, to supply the soldiers in battle with food, medical services, munitions and equipment.

We have no quarrel with the people of Germany, still less with those of German descent who are working peacefully in our midst in Canada. Our desperate fight is simply against Hitlerism and Nazism, with its

Around Field And Barn.

By E. M. C.

No one should expect to make a profit by haphazard methods, he should be prepared to adopt all up to date methods and ideas wherever possible.

Here is a hint from an English agriculture paper that I think is of real value and costs nothing to put into practice.
STOPPED

In producing pigs there are frequently losses; some can be avoided easily, some seem to be unavoidable. One source of loss—and it runs into thousands of pounds throughout the country—is the common death of the piglet just being "laid on". Now this sounds as if precautions had not been taken to prevent this misfortune, but often this is not the case.

One hears so much about heredity, and there can be no doubt at all, in the face of the undeniable evidence produced, that this type of loss can be checked and even eliminated by a study of heredity. By this I mean that sows can be bred that do not overlie pigs and that this quality can be handed on from dam to daughter and so on and on through the generations.

I have recently seen figures (official at that) showing the causes of losses in litters, and out of well over 1,000 casualties, no fewer than 992 were caused by being "laid on".

Now this looks as if those who kept pigs did not trouble as to conditions in the farrowing pen; they would, possibly, neglect the farrowing rail, and would not care whether the litter was short or not. Hence piglets might meet their end suddenly.

On the contrary it has been found, through investigation, that sows inherit the vice of "lying on" piglets, and it has been found possible, by up-to-date breeders, to eliminate this cause of loss by careful breeding.

As a case in point I can instance a breeder who possessing a sow that was not addicted to this propensity, carefully watched what her daughters did with their litters, and so bred on to granddaughters who were never known to lie on their pigs.

An old Scotchman was smoking in the waiting room of a railway station. A porter came along and said, "Don't you see that notice on the wall 'No smoking allowed'?"

Yes, I do," said the Scot, "but how can I keep all your rules? There's another on the wall there, 'Wear Janella Corsets'."

DEEP-ROOTED IN FRIENDLY SOIL!

A great tree gains its stature, builds its strength and bears its fruit through years of growth in friendly ground. So do the enterprises of man.

Like the great tree, the co-operative ideal has taken deep root in Alberta soil and is growing stronger each year.

Alberta Pool Elevators has risen to a position of predominance because of its adherence to the co-operative ideology, its alertness and energy in advancing farm interests, and its open policy of doing business.

The co-operative way of grain marketing is the correct way, the system is essentially sound and it should be extended and strengthened.

Farmers can gain power, prestige and added security only by developing their own co-operative businesses.

Alberta Pool Elevators is a purely Alberta Farmer-owned co-operative.

Your patronage is respectfully solicited.

RADIO OPINIONS
AND NEWS by Phil Carscallen
PUBLICITY DEPARTMENT CFAC

Lux Radio Theatre

Another glamorous season is in store for radio listeners as Lux Radio Theatre returns to the air for its sixth season. The first programme was Monday, September 11, and starred Claudette Colbert and Cary Grant in the delightful comedy, "The Awful Truth". Programs throughout the winter will bring stars just as famous and plays that have been carefully selected by producer Cecil B. DeMille to make this season's entertainment the best that has yet been heard.

Lux Radio Theatre is heard over CFAC every Monday night at 8:00 p.m. It is a full hour play, and those who have heard former productions will agree that this is one hour of the week that is on our "must here" list. Big Town and Dick Powell Show

Two shows that have proved very popular in the last two seasons in Canada are "Big Town" starring Edward G. Robinson and the Dick Powell

Variety Show. They are both due to return to the air waves Tuesday, September 19. "Big Town" will be heard at 8:30 p.m. and the Dick Powell Show at 9:00 p.m. A complete new series of plays have been arranged for, all centering around famous "Big Town". Once again you will be able to follow the crusades of Steve Wilson and Lorelei against crime.

Dick Powell will pilot the good ship "Variety" on its Tuesday night cruise. All the regular cast including Parkyakarkas and Martha Raye will be on it. There will be fun and gaiety in plenty for all listeners.

These are two shows you can't afford to miss, so jot down that time: Tuesday, September 19th, 8:30 and 9:00 p.m.

The Lone Ranger is Here!

Well friends, the Lone Ranger is here. He has been on CFAC since Monday, September 11th. We hope you haven't missed any part of this grand story, but if you haven't heard about the Lone Ranger, we'd better tell you something about him.

The Lone Ranger is a modern Robin Hood and Sir Galahad. He is the friend of all honest people and the terror of the outlaws. The Lone Ranger, on his fiery white horse, Silver, rides the western plains looking for outlaws and crooks who rob and terrorize the honest people. This is a red-blooded show that will capture the interest of both young and old alike.

The Lone Ranger is heard over CFAC Monday, Wednesday and Fridays from 7:00 to 7:30 p.m.

Ken Carpenter

Ken Carpenter, who spends most of his time in the Kraft

Music Hall reading the commercials, might have been a great thespian had it not been for an unforeseen event. When he was six years old he organized his playmates into a show troupe and began putting on plans and comedy sketches in his father's barn. During one of the sketches, however, the barn burned down and he never succeeded in getting the company together after that.

Water Valley Notes. from our own Correspondent

Water Valley School started with a bang, had maximum attendance and everyone seems pleased with the new teacher, Robert Verge.

The war is on at Bituma flats, for when the school opened the parents declared a "stay at home" strike in protest over the re-engagement of V. MacNamee as teacher. Only three small children attended.

During the week a tank truck with a load of fuel oil for Grease Creek oil well lost its way and broke through a bridge on Silver Creek, spilling two or three hundred gallons of oil. Must have punctured the tank, as it oiled the road when going back east through Water Valley. We understand this well has installed rotary equipment and is making good progress, being past the 4000-foot level.

Mrs. P. J. Laveque has been ill with pneumonia during the week but is now progressing favourably.

G. M. Gazeley is in Calgary, taking medical treatments.

C. S. Evans is back on duty, as engineer at the Howard Gazeley sawmill.

It is rumoured that the war has reached W.V. and several enlistments have been made.

We just discovered what caused the wet weather of the past week. Bun Borton started haying.

A neighbour told us that he was going to buy everything possible for a dollar down and the rest when they can catch him. He doesn't think the future is going to deliver the goods so he wants to get his now.
